CREATIVITY SPEAKS: Yahoo discussion group for ACA members

ACA has formed a Yahoo discussion group to enable all members to share ideas and information around the country and the globe.

Here is the basic description of the group and its purpose:

ACA Creativity Speaks is an international discussion group for members of ACA (American Creativity Association) and others invited to join who are interested in discussing issues related to creativity with ACA members and attendees of ACA Events.

ACA Creativity Speaks is the members' tool for sharing and requesting

- 1) ideas
- 2) information
- 3) news and events
- 4) networking
- 5) contacts
- 6) community among ACA members and friends.

Please accept this invitation to join and then go to the site and sign up choosing how you want to receive the messages: daily, digest, or saved on the website.
